Shooting Sports Director

1. A knowledgeable person, 21 years old or older, with appropriate training as per the BSA Shooting Sports Manual.
2. Must be a registered BSA Adult Leader and be current in BSA Youth Protection Training.
3. Know and strictly follow all the safety regulations related to BB guns and archery.
4. Train staff about safety regulations for all areas.
5. Train all campers and leaders in the safety fundamentals.
6. Check the performance and safety aspects of all areas.
7. Restrict from using an area any person who does not follow all safety instructions.
8. Set up of all areas in a practical, safe, and inviting manner.
9. Provide qualified supervision for each area at all times, even when not in use.
10. Train, schedule, and supervise staff to perform daily routines.
11. Check the inventory of all shooting sports equipment. Check minimum equipment to make sure there is enough equipment, and obtain any needed equipment.
12. Keep an adequate stock of BB guns and archery equipment on hand and be accountable for all inventories.
13. Make sure equipment is properly stored and locked up when not in use.
14. Organize and promote individual and team competition.
15. Set an example of Scout-like conduct regarding uniforming and general bearing.
16. Report any and all operational and personnel problems to the camp director.
17. File a closing inventory, a report, and recommendations as instructed.

Range Master

1. Must be 18 years old or older and hold a current Cub Scouts Shooting Sports qualification.
2. Must be a registered BSA Adult Leader and be current in BSA Youth Protection Training.
3. Must possess the knowledge, skills and attitude to safely perform the specific duties as assigned.
4. Is in charge of a specific shooting sports range and is not to be involved in one on one instruction while serving as Range Master for that range.
5. Has overall supervisory responsibility for the operation and safety of any shooting range assigned.
6. Will be in charge of the firing line and may not leave the firing line at any time while the range is in operation.
7. Review safety rules and procedures with each group as they enter the range and as needed while shooting.

Range Officer
1. Must be 18 years old or older and hold a current Pikes Peak Council Cub Scouts Shooting Sports qualification.

2. Must be a registered BSA Adult Leader and be current in BSA Youth Protection Training.

3. Works with the Range Master for optimum instruction and supervision of shooters.

4. Must possess the knowledge, skills and attitude to safely perform the specific duties as assigned.

5. Supervises a maximum of eight shooters.

6. Review safety rules and procedures with each group as they enter the range and as needed while shooting.

---

Junior Range Staff

1. Must be 14 years old or older and registered BSA youth member.

2. Must be approved by the Range Master.

3. Works where assigned by the Range Master.

4. Must possess a Shooting Sports Merit Badge (Rifle, Shotgun and/or Archery), Venturing Shooting Sports Award and/or any additional training as specified by the Range Master, Camp Shooting Sports Director or the Council Shooting Sports Committee.