Path to Become a New NRA Instructor

Path to become an NRA Instructor *

Review “Becoming a NRA Firearms Instructor” at http://training.nra.org/instructors.aspx

Have you taken Basic Instructor Training within the past two years?

Yes

Successfully complete the Pre-course Interview and Questionnaire and successfully complete the Pre-Course Qualification exam and exercises for each discipline you wish to complete

Successfully complete NRA Instructor Training Course in the discipline(s) you wish to teach (e.g., NRA Basic Rifle Course), and receive the endorsement of the NRA Training Counselor conducting that training. (Taking the course does not guarantee you will become an NRA Instructor)

No

Successfully complete Basic Instructor Training course. (Taking the course does not guarantee you will pass it.)

NRA Certified Instructor

* NRA Instructors must be 21 or older
* NRA Associate Instructors must be 18 or older
* NRA Apprentice Instructors must be 13 to 17 years old.